

Accepting Our Flawed Selves

We come into the rooms of AA in a tattered grave state. I was hopelessly ashamed, a broken human of seemingly no value. The most amazing thing happened as I discovered that I was now part of a brotherhood of damaged souls- that all of you had felt the same abject desperation, shame, guilt, and hopelessness that I felt. Perhaps I had found an unexpected refuge from the hellish nightmare of alcoholism! I was willing to try anything although I suspected that I was beyond hope -mentally, physically, and spiritually.

The life stories from other people coupled with the Big Book and 12 & 12 started to convince me that I was possibly just a sick person instead of a permanently deranged moral leper. The idea that my problem was the misuse of the instincts made sense to me and that the point of our spiritual program was to re-align myself to that moral compass we had as children. I soon had the belief that this would work for me as well (with the good guidance of a loving but assertive sponsor). Soon I had faith that God had somehow plucked me out of that horrifying and hopeless morass - that I might become a useful human being!

I believe it was (and is) the middle six steps that reacquaint me with my own humanity. The 4th and 5th steps gave me a clear idea of who I was, and who I was not. In 6 and 7 (with an accurate vision of who I was meant to be) I am able to submit my body, mind, and soul to my Creator. In 8 and 9 I get to face the people I hurt and make restitution. The amount of forgiveness afforded me during the ninth step amends reassured me that all people are basically good. Realizing that we are all human and that we will "fall short" every day certainly has a humbling effect.

The care and compassion involved in service work and sponsorship has had the best effect of all- we are all exactly the same, and we are on a beautifully imperfect but exciting journey. Clearly, I can choose fear or love to travel with.... what shall it be? A meditation book this morning had this: "Choosing love means I accept and embrace my humanity and that of others." ~ Anonymous

Tradition 5

The Steps are HOW IT WORKS.

The Traditions are WHY IT WORKS.

"Each group has but one primary purpose - to carry the message to the alcoholic who still suffers."

Thank GOD for this tradition! Although it is contradictory for a group of people who are self-centered to the extreme, I think. And I see people in the rooms that never seem to get the full benefit of this program, and many of them have never given freely of themselves to carrying THE message to the alcoholic who is still suffering, at least in my opinion.

At about 6 months sober I hit a wall with my recovery. It was exhausting me, and quite frankly I just didn't see the point. I was still going to meetings, I was still working with my sponsor and kind of working the steps. I had a home group and was doing service work there, but my recovery was becoming stale - and an effort I was getting tired of. Then I started going to one meeting a week at a treatment facility. I didn't understand the protocol of becoming part of the Treatment Committee. I had a friend that was there, and I went because I could see her. I thought I could help her by my "presence". But something unexpected happened. I saw people that reminded me how far I had come. All of a sudden I no longer I didn't take my sobriety for granted, I SAW THE VALUE OF MY EFFORT.

In the 3rd addition of the Big Book in a story called "The Professor and the Paradox", the alcoholic writes of the four paradoxes of AA: "We AAs surrender to win; we give away to keep; we suffer to get well, and we die to live". To me the best way I have given of my time is to go eye to eye, nose to nose with the people that remind me what my disease looks like. It has made me more compassionate and tolerant in meetings and in my life outside of meetings.

Thank you to the founding members of AA who knew how important this tradition is not only to the fellowship, but also to us individually.

Self-support: Where money and spirituality mix!

Step 5 “Admitted to God, to ourselves, and to another human being the exact nature of our wrongs.”

Why must I share my moral inventory with another human being? I certainly thought it was a little extreme, and very intimidating. It had been a very long time since I was honest - let alone “completely honest”. But by the time I arrived to the step, I had a trusting relationship with my sponsor. She promised me that it would be okay.

It was fear that was the reason that I didn’t want to do this step - plain and simple. I was afraid that if I told the secrets I’ve held for so long that my sponsor would ask me to leave and never return. And I believed at the time that I deserved that. But trust is a two-way street. I had to trust her, as she trusted me. Trust. Honesty. These were things that hadn’t been part of my life for a long time. I prayed for the willingness to be willing.

So one afternoon we sat down in the safety of her living room and I trusted this Higher Power I had been working on believing in that this was in fact the next right thing to do. And after what seemed like a very long time it was over! And my sponsor had not asked me to leave - actually she shared some of her dark times with me, and would nod and say “Me, too”. So I think of this step as the “Me, too” step. For me, not only was it amazing to have the burden of these secrets out, but more importantly it was a bonding experience between me and my sponsor.

It was maybe a year later that I realized the bigger impact of being willing to do a 4th and 5th step - the part of the promises that states “No matter how far down the scale we have gone, we will see how our experience can benefit others” started to work in my life. For me at least, when I shared those secrets that kept me sick with my sponsor, and she didn’t shun me, it gave me courage to be more open and honest with other women sick and suffering with this disease. They didn’t shun me either. And so the “Me, too” step started the healing process for me, and perhaps helped others relate to my journey in recovery.

DISTRICT 14*Serving Alachua CountyDCM Corner

Hi everyone!

Our Area Delegate and her team put on an excellent Pre-Conference Agenda Item Workshop which was very well attended and appreciated by all. There are over 60 agenda items the delegates will be voting on at the annual General Service Conference in New York this April, so they had a lot to cover! Two of the hottest topics included revisions to the Big Book and a motion to adopt or adapt a pamphlet published by the General Service Board of AA in Great Britain called "The God Word" which consists of stories by AA members who identify as atheist or agnostic.

The next weekend was Area Assembly where those topics and others were expounded upon and our GSRs were able to give feedback to our Delegate on our wishes as to how want her to vote. This assembly is open to all and meets quarterly. We have been blessed to have it here in Gainesville but there are only two more in the coming months and then it moves to St. Augustine for two years.

Founder's Day will be on June 9th this year and the planning committee is hard at work. Our next meeting is scheduled for Monday, May 7th at 7pm at the Triangle Club and we can still use volunteers. Tickets will be going on sale the beginning of May and will be $5 in advance and $10 at the door. We ask that everyone bring a side dish so that we can continue to keep the ticket price at $5 and still have enough food for everyone.

On the District level, our Treasurer has stepped down, so we are searching for a new Treasurer to serve the remainder of the term which ends in December. Please contact me if you are interested or attend our next District meeting on the Wednesday, May 9th at 6 pm at Westminster Presbyterian Church. All our welcome to attend.

POST – FS presented the POST "getting better all the time".

LITERATURE/MERCHANDISE – FS stated that at present the Intergroup Office is fully stocked, sales continue to be at cost; KM asked about profits from sales. Currently, the office manager is in the process of monitoring costs (Where & When, POST, literature), and sales, and this will be completed over a six month period (through June). JF brought up the topic of non-conference approved items; AW asked if non-conference approved items had been cleared out. Currently, some of the non-conference approved items are T-shirts, mugs, medallions, and chips. The T-shirts will be washed and then a determination will be made about having a sale on them. Chips were previously 3/$1.00; now 3/$1.25.

WHERE & WHEN – FS introduced the new W&W with the pamphlet-type format; it is designed so that it should be better utilized and not just thrown out. The online PDF version still needs work. There will be updates with the next printing. 1000 were printed; 350 given to District. AW asked about charging for the W&W in the future; no plans at this time. JF asked about it being dated; stated that as this is the first printing, it shows good progress. Changes can be made from the website.

In the future, the inventory will include the number of items on hand, number of sales, etc. The first Steering Committee meeting went well; secretary and chair were selected; currently looking at versions of the bylaws; the next Steering Committee meeting will be 4/22/18, 12:30pm at the Intergroup office; visitors are welcome.

NEW BUSINESS – JF asked if the Intergroup meeting minutes could be e-mailed ahead of the meeting; SR said that she would make every effort to do this, and asked that members please make sure that their e-mail addresses were correct on the sign-in sheet.

There being no further business, JF moved that the meeting be adjourned; DL seconded; passed; meeting adjourned at 1:35pm.

NEXT MEETING – SUNDAY, 5/27/18, 1PM AT SCHAEFFER HALL

DCM—PC. Moment of silence; Serenity Prayer followed by introductions.

Secretary—MR. Minutes accepted without amendment.

Treasurer—EB. Report accepted without amendment. EB stepped down as treasurer, and District 14 now needs someone to fill this position.

DCM—PC. Thank you to everyone who came to the pre-conference workshop. Area Assembly is this weekend. There will be workshops all day Saturday. Sunday morning is when we vote on area issues. There is a new-GSR orientation at 9:00 AM on Saturday. From 4:30 to 6:30 PM on Saturday we will be discussing the GSC agenda with our delegate. You have to be in your seat on Sunday morning at 9:00 AM to vote as a GSR. We will be discussing budgets at the next meeting.

Alt DCM—CM. I have been absent from district for the last two months. I want to make amends for missing out on district activities. Please let me know if I can correct any troubles this has caused. I will be rededicating myself to my position.

Accessibilities—PC. KK is still laid out. She is still doing her job over the phone. She is ready to help. Archives—MT We are focusing on Founder's Day. We are creating a tree disc that will recognize all of the groups. Founder's Day is June 9. We still need help with planning. We will be meeting next Tuesday at the Triangle Club at 6:30 PM. Corrections—JiW. New GSRs are welcome to our monthly meeting. We need help from both men and women to go into the facilities. We are continuing to discuss Bridging the Gap. We have a new member bringing meetings into the Alachua work release. CPC/PI—DA. At our last meeting, we discussed conference agenda items related to our committee. We are keeping a list of radio stations that are willing to run one of our PSAs. We made a presentation at Santa Fe Community College to the nursing students. We will likely do this again next semester. Our safety council presentation to DUI classes could use new volunteers. You just read the presentation and share your story. It takes 45-60 minutes. We have put our business cards at many locations. We are going to look into running a PSA on Pandora. The Gainesville Sun is still running our PSAs.

Grapevine—RG. We are hosting the Grapevine room at Area Assembly this weekend. We need volunteers to help with this. Literature—FS. spoke on behalf of WL. People can get the literature pack at Intergroup for $33.55 that will fill up an entire rack and have some leftover. Many racks are empty or low, so they should consider this. Treatment—DS. We brought Bridging the Gap pamphlets for people to take back to their home groups and to corrections. I have cases of several different AA books if someone needs to take into a treatment meeting. I put together packets for people going into treatment centers. I would like to have one order a month for centers that need literature, so please coordinate with me.

Website—JM. Meetings are now on the first Tuesday at 7:00 PM at the Starbucks on 16th and 13th. We are communicating more with Intergroup and discussing combining web sites. We are also testing map apps for the web site. We are also looking into downloads for Bridging the Gap and correspondence so that people don't need to find the physical forms.

FCYPAA—JM. Our next event is in May. It will focus on traditions 10-12. We are going to help with Founder's Day, and we are taking care of eight treatment meetings as a group.

Old Business—pre-conference agenda workshop: the Triangle Club let us use the room for free.

New Business—Motion that District 14 set aside $400 for Founder's Day. Passed unanimously. No one was willing to step up to be the new treasurer.

4th Tradition and 4th Concept were read by MR. and PC respectively.

Meeting Adjourned at 6:59 PM. Next district meeting May 9th.

See AAGainesville.org for more information.
