

Coming to Believe

When I came into the rooms, I was terrified of the second step. How was I, an atheist, going to come to believe that a power greater than myself could do anything! Don't get me wrong, I didn't believe that I was a higher power. I simply lacked belief in a higher power called God. Thank heavens that someone at the first meeting shared that for him GOD stood for group of drunks. THAT was something I could work with. So, I did. I began working the steps and squirmed through the steps as it became abundantly clear to me that everyone expected me to develop a higher power in the form of an entity. For example, my sponsor made me write a list of all the qualities about a God that I admire as well as those I found less than admirable. She ripped the sheet in half when we met, and she informed me that those characteristics that she handed back to me (the admirable ones) were all encompassed within my God. I loved my first sponsor, heck, she saved my life! But, I think it's important to remember to meet newcomers where they are. It's something that I bring up in meetings frequently (particularly when there are newcomers) - that God may not be an entity for everyone.

If we can keep the newcomer atheists and agnostics in the room, they just may find themselves come to believe. . . as did I. I began to study religion in an attempt to find a God to no avail. I found that even though my belief system aligned closely to Buddhism, I could not accept any organized religion. So, I discarded that notion. Instead, I (in a very forced manner) continued on my journey of coming to believe after my sponsor told me, "you don't have to define your higher power." That was freeing for me. So, I spent the next years struggling between my group of drunks and an amorphous form of Buddhism (although I couldn't call it that).

Today, I'm comfortable explaining my higher power, calling my higher power God, and proclaiming that I'm basically Buddhist. How long has it taken me to get here? About five years. Has it been an easy road? Absolutely not! The bottom line is that all of us came into the rooms wherever we were. Newcomers do the same. Maybe they have a great relationship with their God. Maybe they're angry with their God. If they work with a sponsor who can identify with them (or can at least meet them where they are), they, too, can come to believe.

Tradition 10 The Steps are HOW IT WORKS. The Traditions are WHY IT WORKS.

“Alcoholics Anonymous has no opinion on outside issues; hence the A.A. name ought never be drawn into public controversy.”

Long Form: No A.A. group or member should ever, in such a way as to implicate A.A., express any opinion on outside controversial issues—particularly those of politics, alcohol reform, or sectarian religion. The Alcoholics Anonymous groups oppose no one. Concerning such matters, they can express no views whatever.

AA has been fortunate thus far to avoid endorsing anything other than the Big Book and The Twelve Steps. Alcoholics Anonymous is a program of attraction. Any association with outside groups or causes might hamper that attraction. Recovery from alcoholism is a life and death issue. We can ill afford taking political positions, espousing religious beliefs or endorsing any other organization or product. As divided as our country currently is politically, such actions might keep thousands of people from coming to rooms. The primary purpose of AA is to help the sick and suffering alcoholic get and stay sober. While other organizations have been spooned for addicts and relatives of alcoholic. AA is in the business of helping alcoholics, that is certainly an all encompassing task.

Bill W.'s words:

“If we steadfastly decline all political, sectarian, or other alliances, we shall avoid internal division and public notoriety;..”

“we ought never accept even the most alluring temporary benefits if these should consist of considerable sums of money, or could involve us in controversial alliances and endorsements,..”

“Unity is so vital to us A.A.'s that we cannot risk those attitudes and practices which have sometimes demoralized other forms of human society. Thus far we have succeeded because we have been different. May we continue to be so!”

Congratulations!

Step 10

The last three steps, the maintenance steps, are my personal favorite. I have found Step 10 a great gift in my life. Before I got sober, I spent the minutes and hours before falling into a fitful sleep, I would replay the day. Who had offended me that day? Who had taken advantage of me? Who ignored me? What didn't I get that I wanted? How would I get even with them tomorrow? Then my fears would take over, what calamity might befall my kids the next day, what might go wrong at my job, and finally what fatal disease did I have? What a roiling mess I was! I went through most of my days angry and hungover.

AA has given me the Tenth Step to deal with my character defects in a very immediate way. I have learned that I can promptly admit when I am wrong. I know now that it is best to handle such issues immediately to minimize misunderstanding and hurt feelings. I try very hard not to be the source of someone's unhappiness. Being human, I don't always succeed, but I can attempt to correct the wrong as soon as I realize my error. What a wonderful way to live! When I am disturbed, I am empowered (and obligated) to do something about it.

Step 10 gives me another way to review my day. Who did I harm today? Was I rude, thoughtless or critical of those around me? Did I try my best to make a positive difference in the lives of those around me? Was I lazy or self-centered when working with others? There are lots of ways to make a personal inventory. Now instead of sitting in my guilt, worrying about what to do about these problems, I plan to make an amend as soon as possible. I may even write it down to make sure I don't forget. I now have a clear conscience.

And then I pray and meditate. I pray and meditate until sleep comes, which is a much healthier way for me to live. I can fall asleep feeling peaceful.

Intergroup Chairperson's Corner

Hi everyone!

It's a pleasure to serve as your Intergroup Chair. I also have the honor of chairing our Gratitude Dinner committee. The Gratitude Dinner is on Saturday, November 23rd starting around 4:00. No Gator game that day either! We have had 2 planning meetings so far, and have most of the committee chairs covered. But those committees need people to help them! It's a great opportunity for service :) Announcements are being made at meetings about the next planning meetings, but you can always call me or email me for information.

Thanks again to all the groups that have been sending reps to our monthly meeting! I'm amazed at all the participation we have. All of our business is done to help the alcoholic who still suffers. And your group will have a say in how we do that if you are represented.

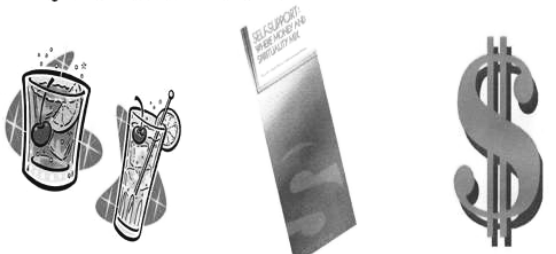

As always, please contact me with any questions or concerns! Thanks for allowing me to serve you.

Faithful 5 er's and 10 er's

My part is the Key, not the Lock

NORTH CENTRAL FLORIDA INTERGROUP
AUGUST 25, 2019

ATTENDANCE – GN (Chair), BC (Alt Chair), PC (Alt Secretary), PB (Treasurer), MR (Alt Treasurer), FS (Office Mgr), WM (Webmaster), TR, BB, AM, BM, JVB, DL, TC, JH, SC, GM, CH, ST, SW, EP, RR, KP, MP, BK, MR, SL

MINUTES – PC presented the July minutes (pg 6 of the POST); read and approved.

TREASURER'S REPORT – PB presented the July treasurer's report (pg 7 of the POST); he noted that payroll taxes were added into the office manager's salary. Everything or Nothing paid back the $200 that Intergroup gave them for the Emotional Sobriety workshop. He noted that the Business Reserve (pg 8 of the POST) should have a goal of $10,800, not $10,000.

PHONE COMMITTEE – No report

POST – DO was not present so there was no report, but GN gave out kudos for how consistently great the POST is every month.

LITERATURE & MERCHANDISE/WHERE & WHEN – FS reported that the new Grapevine is in stock. He also said the book, "Young and Sober", which is normally $13, is currently on sale for $7. They have elected to keep the Where & When the same color with each new printing, but the top right-hand corner has the date on it. The intergroup office is always looking for volunteers. There is a $25 minimum for credit card purchases, but they can now be made every day that Intergroup is open.

WEBSITE – WM reported that he was able to get a count of the number of hits on the old Intergroup address (which redirects the user to the new webpage) and was surprised at the number – 1,034 hits in a one month period! He is not sure why there are so many hits...it was not expected. There was an issue with the mobile view of the website which has now been fixed. He has had a request to make the meeting schedule so that it is searchable for specific types of meetings, (i.e., meditation, literature, speaker, etc.) and he is working on filtering it.

ACTIVITIES – JH was not present and there was no report

DCM REPORT – CM, DCM, reported they are working on getting a representative from District to attend Intergroup meetings and hopes to have the position filled soon. There is a 6-month sobriety requirement for the position. District is struggling to fill some of the committee chair positions so they are relaxing the sobriety requirements to see if that helps. Currently, Treatment needs a Co-chair and Accessibilities needs a Chair. SGW said she would step up to fill the Accessibilities Chair position.

YPAA – BE reported that FCYPAA has disbanded but a new group is forming to bring the camping event to Gainesville. The group is called Gainesville Area Young People in AA (GAYPAA).

OLD BUSINESS – Intergroup's 7th Tradition Treasurer's packet, which has several different pamphlets, will include the new Intergroup brochure; packets were available for the taking and are also available at the Intergroup office. There is a workshop following the Intergroup meeting today (at 2pm) on service and the 3rd Legacy, featuring our Area Delegate, AD, and a panel of 3 past DCMS and Delegates. GN stated that the Gratitude Dinner has been set for Saturday, 11/23/19; the location has been reserved; there is no football game that weekend. The first Gratitude Dinner committee meeting will be on Tuesday, 8/27/19 at 6:30pm at the Triangle Club.

NEW BUSINESS – It was asked that we try to make sure people know about all the resources that are available: Grapevines, tapes, POSTS, Where & Whens and our website, <http://gainesvilleaa.org>. SGW announced that the Wednesday meeting of the Gratitude Group is now a speaker meeting.

There being no further discussion, the meeting was closed with the Responsibility Pledge.

NEXT MEETING – SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 2019, 1PM AT THE TRIANGLE CLUB

24th Annual Gratitude Dinner Saturday November 23th, 2019

WHAT IF TODAY, WE WERE JUST GRATEFUL FOR EVERYTHING?

DISTRICT 14Serving Alachua CountyDCM Corner

Hello everyone.

Not much to report this month. Just one issue that I wanted to focus on:

The final report from the general service office has been disseminated. This is a 120 plus page report on what happened at the general service conference in New York this year. There are sections on every aspect of AA service within this report and how we are working on improving our ability to reach the still suffering alcoholic. The main part that I want to touch on is safety. It has been endlessly debated and researched and debated some more and bottom line, there is nothing within our literature, our traditions, steps, concepts or principles of anonymity that would prevent us from taking appropriate action to keep aa meetings safe. The way that I like to think about it is that if I would dial 911 for an issue happening in a public space, than I can and should dial 911 for an issue happening within in a meeting.

The other part of safety that was folded into this section of the report had to do with predatory behavior within Alcoholics Anonymous, more commonly referred to as 13th stepping. The report indicated that all too often within AA this topic is taken way to lightly, or worse made into a joke to cover inappropriate behavior. The message from GSO, area assembly and your DCM is that this kind of behavior is not a joke, it is a BIG deal and it should be treated as such and it should be called what it is “ inappropriate predatory behavior”. The new recommendation is to avoid using the term “13th step” as this takes away from the seriousness of this issues. The report also wanted to remind us that we do not go out looking for conflict, but we do everything within our power to keep the meeting space and attendees safe. The report recommends and I concur that if your home group has not discussed what it would do in an unsafe situation than the time to have this conversation is NOW. If you have any issues or concerns with this, talk to your sponsor and your home group.

Please contact me with any questions or to further discuss this important issue.

Thank you for allowing me to serve, Chris M, DCM District 14 (954) 540-8046
